- Treated wood and therefore water- and dirt-resistant;
- The curves milled into the trays (in which the bowls are placed) are 1 cm deep;
- Clean with a damp cloth. Avoid using acidic/corrosive products such as cleaning products.

Trays

Complete your dining set with an oak tray from AVA bowls. The trays feature milled-in curves. This ensures the bowls do not slide off the shelf and therefore always stay nicely in place.

Available in sizes S, M & L

Tray size S is supplied with fixed (black) rubber anti-slip studs. Size S is therefore supplied without feet.

Trays

Tray size M and L come with matching oak legs as standard. The legs are easy to assemble yourself.

The dimensions per size can be found on page 14.
